NEXT COUNT ON MONDAY NIGHT

The next and last count before the final count in the Piano Contest will take place next Monday night. The ballot box closes promptly at 5 o'clock and we trust that all contestants will have their ballots in before that time. The contestant turning in the largest vote will get a $10 gold piece as a special prize.

After that comes the "home stretch." Of course it is hard work, but the prize is worth it. The friends of the contestants can assist them in getting this handsome instrument, one that will grace any home. There are many old subscribers who would not mind paying a year in advance just to help their favorite contestant. Ask them and you will find that there are very few hard hearted enough to refuse the little favor.

Announcement of the final count will be made in the next issue of this paper. Remember that you can gather in votes through the stores that are giving coupons. Ask your friends to buy of those merchants and to give you their coupons. One 25-vote coupon goes with every dollar in cash spent at the stores giving them. No coupons are given except for cash purchases paid for at the time. One merchant has given out 320 coupons which shows that the contestants have sent him some business, and that they have a good batch of them to turn in Monday.

Don't worry about what your competitor is doing, just "saw wood," and get votes. That is the only way on earth to win this handsome prize or any of the other prizes offered by the merchants. By the way, some of the contestants seem to have overlooked these merchants' prizes. They are handsome ones. Ask the merchants to let you see them.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT BRUTON SUNDAY NIGHT

There will be a special musical service at Bruton Sunday night, on the order of the one held last summer and which was so much enjoyed. The programme will consist of violin and organ selections, interspersed with familiar hymns, the kind everybody knows and likes. There will be no sermon, the emphasis being laid upon worship in prayer and praise, the whole service lasting about three-quarters of an hour.

The Rev. Edward Valentine Jones, father of the rector, is expected to preach at the morning service.

HARRISON-MCCANDLISH

Mr. Henningham and Miss Charlie McCandlish, of Louisa county, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage in Highland Park, Richmond, yesterday, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Daniel T. Merritt, formerly pastor of the Williamsburg Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will reside in the John C. King house, east Duke of Gloucester street.

The bride formerly lived here and is a sister of Mrs. R. L. Griffin. Mr. Harrison is local manager of the Standard Oil Co. Their many friends join in hearty congratulation and best wishes.

Argument for a new trial for Hezekiah Cook, the York county negro convicted of murdering his half brother, was heard by Judge Tyler in the York Circuit Court last Friday. Judge Tyler reserved his decision.

Send in your order for Mail Boxes before the first of November and be ready for the free delivery which begins on that date.—George E. Beale.

MADDOG SCARE HERE YESTERDAY

There was an exciting maddog chase here yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock, and if the dog wasn't mad, he had every reason to be if he caught sight of the armed mob that chased him. The canine belonged to Mr. Webster Hitchens, and was suddenly attacked with a fit in Mr. B. Larson's yard. From there he raced up town, followed by Mr. Hitchens with his pistol, another man with a shot gun, and some colored boys with brickbats.

He ran into the City Livery stable. Here Dr. D. J. King joined the chasers, armed with a pitchfork and a strong resolution. Men at the livery stable armed themselves with what they could find, but the animal mysteriously disappeared. Later he was found exhausted in a fence corner near the residence of the Misses Garrett in the East End, where Mr. Hitchens fired five shots from his pistol into the animal's body. After that another man made sure of the work by putting two loads of shot into the carcass. No one was bitten so far as known.

Dr. J. E. Brumback, who left here to locate in Fairmont, W. V., has left that place and is now practicing his profession in Baltimore.
